

Our Story

Quarry Consulting was founded in 2011 by industry experts who understood the importance of creating value for clients rather than simply filling empty chairs. We've built a team that offers unique solutions across a variety of industries and sectors, with a focus on agility, flexibility, and responsiveness. Quarry Consulting is committed to providing you with talented and hardworking professionals who fit your unique environment.

The demand for talent in technology and management consulting roles is on the rise, and great people are hard to find. When you are unable to fill key roles, it puts your business and important projects at risk. Quarry Consulting can help you find talented professionals to fit your unique needs, either with contract or permanent staffing solutions, and management consulting.

ADVISORY SERVICES TEAM

With so many transformation initiatives struggling to achieve results, don't let your project become another statistic. The Quarry Advisory Services Team is made up of business transformation experts who accelerate successful change.

As an extension of your management team, they provide the leadership your organization needs to adapt and succeed in a dynamic business environment.

STAFF AUGMENTATION TEAM

In today's knowledge economy, finding and hiring the right people directly impacts the ability of your organization to succeed. The process is easier than you think with the Quarry team of talent experts.

But this doesn't happen by chance: we take the time to understand the skills, competencies, character, and strengths of every candidate resulting in responsive and high-quality staffing solutions.

Strategic Partnerships for Guaranteed Success

Transformation projects do not happen in a bubble, and their success rely on strategic partnerships to deliver value. Quarry has strong partnerships with leading IT, strategy, management, engineering, and technology companies to bring leadership and integrated solutions to you.

Our Agile Resource Management delivery process, combined with these strategic partnerships, allows Quarry to quickly respond to your project needs in a variety of ways, including:

- Augmenting your staff and leadership teams through our unique Virtual Bench model.
- Providing a managed services model for unique requirements such as IT, operations, organization design, and innovation initiatives.
- Developing joint ventures to co-create and/or co-deliver services with our partner(s).

How It Works

- 1 UNDERSTAND: Quarry takes the time to understand your unique mandates and challenges to tailor the search requirements accordingly.
- 2 SEARCH: Quarry examines the current pool of candidates and external tools and applications to find the best available people. Using an agile qualification process, we can present you with candidates within 48 to 72 hours. For urgent needs, this timeline can be shortened to 24 hours.
- 3 ONBOARDING: Quarry ensures they are properly onboarded and engaged with your team. We follow-up with the consultants after one week to evaluate progress, and address questions, challenges, or suggestions.
- 4 PERFORMANCE: Client satisfaction is essential, so Quarry maintains regular communication with consultants and clients to ensure the assignment is going well. We also track spending to keep your project on budget.
- 5 RESULTS: As part of the quality process, we conduct a client assessment to gauge your satisfaction.

Procurement Vehicles

Quarry Consulting is a supplier in good standing on many Federal, Provincial, and Municipal supply arrangements and standing offers. This simplifies the procurement process for many categories of professional services.

Our Commitment to Equity, Diversity, & Inclusion

Quarry Consulting supports and promotes the hiring inclusion of all races, colour, gender identity, religion, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, physical abilities, ages, sexual orientation, and veteran status. Our recruitment team has been trained in diversity recruiting, and Quarry Consulting is a certified Diversity Supplier with the Inclusive Workplace & Supply Council of Canada (IWSCC).

We are proud supporters of WomenHack job fairs, which promote gender equality in the technology industry.

“We’ve been partnering with Quarry for almost five years on a variety of consulting engagements and have experienced nothing but great interactions and cooperation with all their management, staff, and consultants.”
